

NATIONAL STALKING
AWARENESS MONTH
— JANUARY 2023 —
KNOW IT. NAME IT. STOP IT.

Whereas, under the laws of all fifty states, the U.S. Territories, the District of Columbia, and federal government, stalking is a crime;

Whereas, 13.5 million people are stalked in a one-year period in the United States, and the majority of victims are stalked by someone they know;

Whereas, 3 in 4 women killed by an intimate partner have been stalked by that intimate partner;

Whereas, many stalking victims lose time from work and experience serious psychological distress and lost productivity at a much higher rate than the general population;

Whereas, many stalking victims are forced to protect themselves by relocating, changing their identities, changing jobs, and obtaining protection orders;

Whereas, more victims are stalked using technology—such as phone calls, text messages, social media platforms, internet posts, emails, and electronic tracking—than not using any technology;

Whereas, there is a need for great public awareness about the nature, criminality, and potential lethality of stalking;

Whereas, criminal justice systems can enhance their responses to stalking by regular training and thorough investigation and prosecution of the crime;

Whereas, laws and public policies must be continually adapted to keep pace with new tactics used by stalkers;

Whereas, communities can better combat stalking by adopting multidisciplinary responses by teams of local agencies and organizations and by providing more and better victim services;

and Whereas, _____ is joining forces with victim service providers, criminal justice officials, and concerned citizens throughout _____ and the United States to observe National Stalking Awareness Month;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, _____, as _____ of _____, do hereby proclaim January 2023 as STALKING AWARENESS MONTH in _____ and applaud the efforts of the many victim service providers, police officers, prosecutors, national and community organizations, and private sector supporters for their efforts in promoting awareness about stalking.
